ANGLICARE AUSTRALIA NATIONAL AWARDS 2015

The Anglicare Australia National Awards for Innovation and Excellence, sponsored by Telstra, recognise outstanding services, projects and programs provided by the organisations of the Anglicare Australia network, as well as individual volunteers who have made a significant contribution.

The Awards program affirms the contribution of Anglicare agencies to the health and wellbeing of not only the individuals, but also Australian society.

Winners will be announced at the National Awards ceremony at Floriade in Canberra on Tuesday 15 September 2015.

There are literally hundreds of outstanding programs and services being delivered by Anglicare Australia's member organisations across the country. It might just be quite a challenge to find the one "standout" in each category that deserves to be recognised and rewarded. But that's a great challenge to have!

And what about the passionate, dedicated and hardworking volunteers that support us in supporting our communities! Their extraordinary contribution should be acknowledged.

For inspiration, read the stories of award winners and high commended in The Anglicare Australia Review or on the Anglicare Australia National Awards webpage. Winners from 2015 will also be featured in next year's The Review, on the website and each month in our Aspect newsletter.

Pls note, all award entries require a Nomination Form AND Statement of Support in the selected category.

There are four categories to choose from:

EXCELLENCE – for a particular service or project or for the overall service provided by the agency.

NOMINATION GUIDE

Before you begin your Statement of Support, be sure to read the Nomination Guide. The Guide has been developed to ensure you understand the official nomination process, including endorsement by CEOs and referees, and the inclusion of photographs and supporting material. It also provides information on judging and the awards ceremony in September.

And the Checklist will ensure you have covered all bases.
