

Call for Abstracts 2022

Share your ideas and experiences at the 2022 Anglicare Australia Conference!

Celebrate your progress and plans for the future!

Applications are invited for papers for the Anglicare Australia National Conference at the Hotel Grand Chancellor in Hobart.

Workshops and presentations are an important part of the conference, giving participants an opportunity to exchange information, showcase successes, promote your organisation's agenda and make useful connections.

With a focus on the theme Replenishing Hope, we welcome workshops and presentations in all service types from member organisations.

Abstract Requirements

Please complete the abstract submission form, which covers:

- » Title of paper
- » Names and affiliations of presenters
- » Style presentation or workshop
- » Length of time required (30, 45 or 90 min)
- » The thematic streams you plan to address
- » Abstract

Workshop sessions will be 90 minutes each. Each session will contain two presentations/workshops of 45 minutes each. However, proposals of 30 and 90 minutes will be considered.

Abstracts should include

- » 300 words maximum (text only)
- » The names of presenting author first
- » The names and organisations of other authors
- » Enough information to allow fair assessment
- » A description of the background, who should attend, the structure of workshop or presentation, and the intended outcomes.

Presentations and workshops may:

- » Cover a case study or innovative research topic
- » Outline current thinking or policy relevant to emerging need and practice
- » Showcase best practice methods or models of service.

You may wish to highlight points of difference in:

- » Remote vs metropolitan settings
- » Conceptual vs applied approaches
- » Competitive marketing vs community development

Submitting your abstract

Completed forms should be emailed to abstracts@anglicare.asn.au by Friday 24 June 2022.

Please include "Abstract submission" in the subject field, followed by your name and the paper title.

The peer panel will advise of the abstract selections by Friday 8 July 2022.
